SWALLOWS HOMEWARD FLY

An Unprecedented Exodus From the Paradise of the Pacific.

A Hundred People Will Sail by the Steamer Moana on Thursday for the States.

There will be an exodus from Honolulu by the Moana on Thursday such as has not been seen in years. To date 79 persons have booked for the steamer with every indication that the number will be increased to 100 before tomorrow night. Few of these are Island people. Most of them are tourists who have spent the winter in Honolulu. They will compose a merry party indeed on the return voyage. It is not unlikely, however, that some difficulty will be experienced in securing accommodations. There is at present a heavy travel from the Colonies and the additions here will doubtless jam the big ship.

W. G. Irwin & Co. have booked all cavers and will give them the best accommodations possible.
The following are on the list of applicants for passage:

HORSE OF RECORD.

Subject of Supreme Court Decision and Still in Chancery.

A horse whose name is lost in the tangled maze of litigation that has surrounded him for the past three years was again the bone of contention before Judge Peterson on Saturday and his legal history is as follows:

In July, 1895, Kamohalii brought an action in replevin for this animal against Maunaloa et al.
The District Court decided in favor of the defendants and the plaintiff appealed to the Circuit Court and there in Feb., 1896, he obtained judgment for the return of the horse. Then the defendant appealed to the Supreme Court, where the judgment of the Circuit Court was affirmed (10 Haw.
457).

In the meantime the defendants had placed the horse with Maria Coffin, the defendant in the present action, to pasture, and her contention is that she has a lien on this horse, which contention the plaintiff by his attorney, J.
T. De Bolt, claimed is unsound and Judge Peterson concurred.
Messrs. McGon & Sullivan for the defendant are going to appeal, and it looks as though that horse will belong to a lawyer or go to the bonnyard before any of the litigants get him.

Impure Blood in Spring.

This is the almost universal experience. Diminished perspiration during winter, rich foods and close confinement indoors are some of the causes. A good Spring Medicine, like Hood's Sarsaparilla, is absolutely necessary to purify the blood and put the system in a healthy condition at this season.

Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver tonic. Gentle, reliable, sure.
